Hi Naga, Yaswanth,

I'm writing to let you know that I will be resigning today from my position as consultant, with my last working day being 10/30/2025 [as displayed on the portal].

This was a difficult decision, made after much thought about my career and personal goals. I'm truly grateful for all the support, opportunities, and experiences I've had here.

Working with both of you and the team has been incredibly rewarding, and I appreciate all the guidance and encouragement you've given me.

I'll do my best to help ensure a smooth transition during my notice period.

Thanks and Regards,

Sonali Prakash
